

Report of Webinar- Political Science

The Department of Political Science in collaboration with IQAC, Santipur College conducted a One-day state-level seminar on "Emerging Issues in Political Science " on the 28th June, 2025 from 11.30am onwards. The first Plenary Lecture was delivered by Professor Arindam Roy, Professor of Political Science at the Burdwan University. The title of his lecture was "Women in Governance: Essentialism and Beyond". The second Plenary Lecture was given by Sri Nirmalya Majumdar, Retired Associate Professor, Department of Political Science, Kanchrapara College on "Hidden Treasures of International Relations: An Unexplored Story". More than 180 students, scholars and faculties from Santipur College and other neighbouring institutes attended the seminar and participated in the interactive session. This seminar is of substantial significance for the UG students (Major and Minor) of the Department and the college as well as the topic is very much related and relevant to the specific program of study. By attending the seminar, the participants have gained a deeper understanding of the topic and received some insights to do further inquiry.
